

EVENING WORLD

GIANTS WIN CLOSE GAME.

SPORTS EDITED BY

GOLD HEELS FOR DERBY.

ROBERT EDGREN

YOUNG CORBETT, ESQ., AND MR. T. SLOAN ARRIVE TOGETHER AND PREPARE TO GIVE NEW YORK A TREAT

CORBETT AND SLOAN
ARRIVE TALKATIVEFighter Anxious to Get Back Into the Game and Jockey Feeling the Same Way About Having a Leg Up on Some Good Horses.

BY ROBERT EDGREN.

Young Corbett reached this side of the Atlantic again yesterday afternoon and bled him straight to his old stamping ground at the Metropole. Tod Sloan, equally famous, who had come over on the same steamer, retired to the Imperial to await the arrival of a load or two of trunks before dressing for his initial appearance on Broadway.

Young Corbett looks about twenty pounds heavier than when he left for England. But he does not carry the appearance of fatness. In fact he seemed fit and fine, full of life, and just in the right kind of shape to begin a long and hard season of training.

"Have you seen Britt?" was his first question after placing his foot upon American soil.

"Sure! He's boxing every night now at the Star Theatre up in Harlem."

"Who is he boxing with? Does he look fast? What do you think of him?"

Having fired this volley Corbett stopped for an instant and then exclaimed: "I guess I'll have to go up and look him over Friday night."

"How about your agreement with Britt?" I asked.

"As long as I get another chance to go into a ring with him he is welcome to any kind of an agreement about the terms he may want," Corbett said. "But if he is going to keep me from fighting while I am waiting for him to get ready he'll have to keep out of the ring himself until my turn comes."

GOES WEST SATURDAY.

"I'm going out to California—start Saturday—to see Munroe fight big Jeff. Say, that'll be a good fight, all right. I had a letter from Jack, and he's the most confident man I ever saw. He'll get in and fight. I won't say that he'll win, but there's a good chance. The champion always gets his sooner or later, and it is always the unexpected 'comer' who lands the punch. After I see the fight I'm coming back as far as Denver, I think. I will get out in the mountains for a while. I will camp and hunt and fish. Maybe I'll work in a mine for a couple of months or so—just some easy job. It will keep my mind occupied while I'm waiting, and there isn't a better way in the world to get into shape."

"I took great care of myself across the water. Stayed in England until I got tired of it. Went over to Germany and visited some of the big baths there. I just loafed and rested up. Paris? I went around Paris the longest distance I could get away from it. I didn't go to Paris at all. I was taking care of myself this trip, and I don't want to see Paris. I heard of Paris. Not for me."

"I went to some of the amateur fights over in England. Why, say, I sat at the ringside and laughed. It was funny. They don't seem to know anything about hitting at all. There isn't money enough in the game over there to make it worth while to train. I had one offer of a $5,000 purse for a fight with Jabez White. I sat down and told the National Sporting Club people what Britt and I got for our fight out in California, and they looked wise and winked at each other. They can't think in sums like that over in England. It stuns 'em."

HAD FUN ON TRIP.

"But I had some fun for my trip. Coming back with Tod Sloan was about the best of it. We played all the games on the ship, and Tod could play them all right, too. Then he started climbing the rigging. He found out that he could beat me at that, and he insisted on climbing all the time. He could get up like a monkey, until he got me out of breath."

"On Decoration Day we tried to get the band on the Deutschland to play the Star Spangled Banner. Nothing doing. We couldn't get them to play a single American tune. That made me feel as if I was over in Turkey instead of a few miles off shore here. But I was glad when I saw Hoboken. Tod said Hoboken wasn't America, and he didn't cheer up until he got across to New York."

Here Mr. Corbett's trunks arrived, and he stopped talking to burrow in half a ton of English clothes, trying to find a suit that could be worn on Broadway.

per and the winning of the Criterion Stakes by Schulamite yesterday served as examples of the uncertainty of racing even among the aristocratic horsemen. Madden bred Schulamite and nominated her for this stake. He sold her for $100,000 some time ago. He bought her back and Pepper for $2,000, and in this $20,000 stake the $100,000 horse was first and the $2,000 one was in the luck.

Col. John E. Madden has sold to W. C. Daly his two-year-old filly Sult and Pepper, by Henry of Navarre—Greenwich. The price was reported to have been $250,000. The sale of Salt and Pepper

and the winning of the Criterion Stakes by Schulamite yesterday served as examples of the uncertainty of racing even among the aristocratic horsemen. Madden bred Schulamite and nominated her for this stake. He sold her for $100,000 some time ago. He bought her back and Pepper for $2,000, and in this $20,000 stake the $100,000 horse was first and the $2,000 one was in the luck.

Col. John E. Madden has sold to W. C. Daly his two-year-old filly Sult and Pepper, by Henry of Navarre—Greenwich. The price was reported to have been $250,000. The sale of Salt and Pepper

and the winning of the Criterion Stakes by Schulamite yesterday served as examples of the uncertainty of racing even among the aristocratic horsemen. Madden bred Schulamite and nominated her for this stake. He sold her for $100,000 some time ago. He bought her back and Pepper for $2,000, and in this $20,000 stake the $100,000 horse was first and the $2,000 one was in the luck.

Col. John E. Madden has sold to W. C. Daly his two-year-old filly Sult and Pepper, by Henry of Navarre—Greenwich. The price was reported to have been $250,000. The sale of Salt and Pepper

and the winning of the Criterion Stakes by Schulamite yesterday served as examples of the uncertainty of racing even among the aristocratic horsemen. Madden bred Schulamite and nominated her for this stake. He sold her for $100,000 some time ago. He bought her back and Pepper for $2,000, and in this $20,000 stake the $100,000 horse was first and the $2,000 one was in the luck.

Col. John E. Madden has sold to W. C. Daly his two-year-old filly Sult and Pepper, by Henry of Navarre—Greenwich. The price was reported to have been $250,000. The sale of Salt and Pepper

and the winning of the Criterion Stakes by Schulamite yesterday served as examples of the uncertainty of racing even among the aristocratic horsemen. Madden bred Schulamite and nominated her for this stake. He sold her for $100,000 some time ago. He bought her back and Pepper for $2,000, and in this $20,000 stake the $100,000 horse was first and the $2,000 one was in the luck.

Col. John E. Madden has sold to W. C. Daly his two-year-old filly Sult and Pepper, by Henry of Navarre—Greenwich. The price was reported to have been $250,000. The sale of Salt and Pepper

and the winning of the Criterion Stakes by Schulamite yesterday served as examples of the uncertainty of racing even among the aristocratic horsemen. Madden bred Schulamite and nominated her for this stake. He sold her for $100,000 some time ago. He bought her back and Pepper for $2,000, and in this $20,000 stake the $100,000 horse was first and the $2,000 one was in the luck.

Col. John E. Madden has sold to W. C. Daly his two-year-old filly Sult and Pepper, by Henry of Navarre—Greenwich. The price was reported to have been $250,000. The sale of Salt and Pepper

and the winning of the Criterion Stakes by Schulamite yesterday served as examples of the uncertainty of racing even among the aristocratic horsemen. Madden bred Schulamite and nominated her for this stake. He sold her for $100,000 some time ago. He bought her back and Pepper for $2,000, and in this $20,000 stake the $100,000 horse was first and the $2,000 one was in the luck.

Col. John E. Madden has sold to W. C. Daly his two-year-old filly Sult and Pepper, by Henry of Navarre—Greenwich. The price was reported to have been $250,000. The sale of Salt and Pepper

and the winning of the Criterion Stakes by Schulamite yesterday served as examples of the uncertainty of racing even among the aristocratic horsemen. Madden bred Schulamite and nominated her for this stake. He sold her for $100,000 some time ago. He bought her back and Pepper for $2,000, and in this $20,000 stake the $100,000 horse was first and the $2,000 one was in the luck.

Col. John E. Madden has sold to W. C. Daly his two-year-old filly Sult and Pepper, by Henry of Navarre—Greenwich. The price was reported to have been $250,000. The sale of Salt and Pepper

and the winning of the Criterion Stakes by Schulamite yesterday served as examples of the uncertainty of racing even among the aristocratic horsemen. Madden bred Schulamite and nominated her for this stake. He sold her for $100,000 some time ago. He bought her back and Pepper for $2,000, and in this $20,000 stake the $100,000 horse was first and the $2,000 one was in the luck.

Col. John E. Madden has sold to W. C. Daly his two-year-old filly Sult and Pepper, by Henry of Navarre—Greenwich. The price was reported to have been $250,000. The sale of Salt and Pepper

and the winning of the Criterion Stakes by Schulamite yesterday served as examples of the uncertainty of racing even among the aristocratic horsemen. Madden bred Schulamite and nominated her for this stake. He sold her for $100,000 some time ago. He bought her back and Pepper for $2,000, and in this $20,000 stake the $100,000 horse was first and the $2,000 one was in the luck.

Col. John E. Madden has sold to W. C. Daly his two-year-old filly Sult and Pepper, by Henry of Navarre—Greenwich. The price was reported to have been $250,000. The sale of Salt and Pepper

and the winning of the Criterion Stakes by Schulamite yesterday served as examples of the uncertainty of racing even among the aristocratic horsemen. Madden bred Schulamite and nominated her for this stake. He sold her for $100,000 some time ago. He bought her back and Pepper for $2,000, and in this $20,000 stake the $100,000 horse was first and the $2,000 one was in the luck.

Col. John E. Madden has sold to W. C. Daly his two-year-old filly Sult and Pepper, by Henry of Navarre—Greenwich. The price was reported to have been $250,000. The sale of Salt and Pepper

and the winning of the Criterion Stakes by Schulamite yesterday served as examples of the uncertainty of racing even among the aristocratic horsemen. Madden bred Schulamite and nominated her for this stake. He sold her for $100,000 some time ago. He bought her back and Pepper for $2,000, and in this $20,000 stake the $100,000 horse was first and the $2,000 one was in the luck.

Col. John E. Madden has sold to W. C. Daly his two-year-old filly Sult and Pepper, by Henry of Navarre—Greenwich. The price was reported to have been $250,000. The sale of Salt and Pepper

and the winning of the Criterion Stakes by Schulamite yesterday served as examples of the uncertainty of racing even among the aristocratic horsemen. Madden bred Schulamite and nominated her for this stake. He sold her for $100,000 some time ago. He bought her back and Pepper for $2,000, and in this $20,000 stake the $100,000 horse was first and the $2,000 one was in the luck.

Col. John E. Madden has sold to W. C. Daly his two-year-old filly Sult and Pepper, by Henry of Navarre—Greenwich. The price was reported to have been $250,000. The sale of Salt and Pepper

and the winning of the Criterion Stakes by Schulamite yesterday served as examples of the uncertainty of racing even among the aristocratic horsemen. Madden bred Schulamite and nominated her for this stake. He sold her for $100,000 some time ago. He bought her back and Pepper for $2,000, and in this $20,000 stake the $100,000 horse was first and the $2,000 one was in the luck.

Col. John E. Madden has sold to W. C. Daly his two-year-old filly Sult and Pepper, by Henry of Navarre—Greenwich. The price was reported to have been $250,000. The sale of Salt and Pepper

and the winning of the Criterion Stakes by Schulamite yesterday served as examples of the uncertainty of racing even among the aristocratic horsemen. Madden bred Schulamite and nominated her for this stake. He sold her for $100,000 some time ago. He bought her back and Pepper for $2,000, and in this $20,000 stake the $100,000 horse was first and the $2,000 one was in the luck.

Col. John E. Madden has sold to W. C. Daly his two-year-old filly Sult and Pepper, by Henry of Navarre—Greenwich. The price was reported to have been $250,000. The sale of Salt and Pepper

and the winning of the Criterion Stakes by Schulamite yesterday served as examples of the uncertainty of racing even among the aristocratic horsemen. Madden bred Schulamite and nominated her for this stake. He sold her for $100,000 some time ago. He bought her back and Pepper for $2,000, and in this $20,000 stake the $100,000 horse was first and the $2,000 one was in the luck.

Col. John E. Madden has sold to W. C. Daly his two-year-old filly Sult and Pepper, by Henry of Navarre—Greenwich. The price was reported to have been $250,000. The sale of Salt and Pepper

and the winning of the Criterion Stakes by Schulamite yesterday served as examples of the uncertainty of racing even among the aristocratic horsemen. Madden bred Schulamite and nominated her for this stake. He sold her for $100,000 some time ago. He bought her back and Pepper for $2,000, and in this $20,000 stake the $100,000 horse was first and the $2,000 one was in the luck.

Col. John E. Madden has sold to W. C. Daly his two-year-old filly Sult and Pepper, by Henry of Navarre—Greenwich. The price was reported to have been $250,000. The sale of Salt and Pepper

and the winning of the Criterion Stakes by Schulamite yesterday served as examples of the uncertainty of racing even among the aristocratic horsemen. Madden bred Schulamite and nominated her for this stake. He sold her for $100,000 some time ago. He bought her back and Pepper for $2,000, and in this $20,000 stake the $100,000 horse was first and the $2,000 one was in the luck.

Col. John E. Madden has sold to W. C. Daly his two-year-old filly Sult and Pepper, by Henry of Navarre—Greenwich. The price was reported to have been $250,000. The sale of Salt and Pepper

MUNROE GETTING IN SHAPE FOR FIGHT WITH JEFFRIES

(Special to The Evening World.)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—Munroe's training proceeds regularly, and, according to his trainer, very successfully at the Ocean Beach. The big Butte miner weighs 220 pounds and expects to enter the ring at about 210 after a number of days of vigorous road work. He began boxing last Saturday with Andy Gallagher, of the Olympic Club, former amateur champion heavy-weight of the coast. His present daily programme includes four rounds on the bag and immediate after practice on a heavy-weight, besides his dip in the Pacific and chest-weight exercise. Yesterday he boxed three rounds with Gallagher and three with George Sullivan without intermission. Gallagher boxed with Munroe half a dozen years ago and declares that the Montana man has greatly improved. He says he is fairly fast and getting faster, his greatest power being in the right hand, and is harder to reach than Corbett or Fitzsimmons, with whom Gallagher has had experience. His boxing partners say he shows development in quickness and his wind is very good.

TWO BIG OFFERS FOR
BRITT-CORBETT FIGHT

Pugilistic promoters throughout the country are already laying their wires to capture the Britt-Corbett contest for the feather-weight championship of the world which is scheduled to take place in November or December. When the two lads fought their sensational twenty-round battle in San Francisco last March they drew more money than any contest ever brought off between little men in America, or, for that matter, anywhere else in the world. Strange to say, the contest between Britt and the former champion netted the fighters and promoters a bigger gate than the famous McGovern-Ernie contest which took place in Madison Square Garden, when the boxing game was in full swing around New York. McGovern and Ernie drew a $31,000 gate, while Britt and Corbett drew $33,000. Taking into consideration the fact that the latter mill was pulled off in San Francisco, this record is remarkable. The managers of the boxing clubs on the coast now figure that the return match between the champion and Young Corbett will draw close to $50,000. The boys boxed in a small pavilion in San Francisco, and should the match be pulled off there again they will surely show in the Mechanics' Pavilion, which place, according to Manager J. W. Corroth, who has a lease on the building, can seat more people than Madison Square Garden.

Billy Britt, manager of the champion, received an offer to-day from a prominent politician of St. Louis who represents an aggregation of St. Louis sports who are anxious to promote the mill during the Fair. The St. Louis promoters offer the two little fighters a building that can seat 50,000 people if necessary, and they offer to post a $10,000 guarantee that they can handle the match successfully. Manager Britt has also received an offer of a flat $25,000 purse from the Sagebrush Athletic Club, of Nevada, for the mill.

"If the Nevada Club would raise their offer to conform to what we would draw in St. Louis or San Francisco," says Billy Britt, "I would like to fight Corbett there." He would like to fight Corbett there, says Billy Britt, "I would like to fight Corbett there." He would like to fight Corbett there, says Billy Britt, "I would like to fight Corbett there."

A finish contest with Corbett would suit me to a dot."

SPORTSMEN'S GOODS.

HOPKINS

Hopkins' is a long walk from the St. Lawrence River.

But he has St. Lawrence Skiffs from $45 to $55.

Dory Skiffs $22.50
Dories $25.00
Canoe $25.00
Yacht Tenders, with oars $25.00
Fittings and supplies for Yachts $25.00
119—CHAMBERS STREET—119
Between Broadway and West Broadway.

Men Cured by Me

I MAKE NO CHARGE for a friendly talk. I have been exclusively treating special diseases of men for 30 years. Nothing can be done, or money paid, unless I am satisfied that you are suffering from a disease which I can cure. I will treat you absolutely free, and I will guarantee you a cure in the shortest time, with the least medicine, and without any expense. If you cannot call, write for my home cure, CONSULTATION FREE.

PRIVATE DISEASES cured in 8 to 10 days, without use of poison, or drugs.

VARICOCELE cured without cutting in from 8 to 10 days.

DRAINS, LOSSES cured in 15 days, without cutting, pain, drugs or detention from business.

STRICTURE cured in 15 days, without cutting, pain, drugs or detention from business.

PROSTATIC TROUBLES permanently cured, without cutting, pain, drugs or detention from business.

BLOOD POISON cured in 15 days, without cutting, pain, drugs or detention from business.

NERVOUS DEBILITY Cures quick and radical, without cutting, pain, drugs or detention from business.

165 W. 34th St., New York.
Hours 9 A. M. to 8 P. M.
Sundays, 10 to 5 only.

OLD DR. GRINDLE

WE CURE MEN

Our painless method for the cure of Varicocele, Stricture, Prostatic Trouble, and all Chronic and Acute diseases of the male system, is a remarkable discovery. It affords superior advantages over the ordinary methods of treatment. Our success is due to the fact that we have been able to attain the most complicated cases.

If you will come to us we will examine you free of charge and explain why our method will cure when others have failed. Consultation free. If you cannot call, write.

Berlin Medical Inst., 325 W. 44th St., New York.
Hours 9 to 8, Sundays, 10 to 5 only.

Sunday World Wants Work

Monday Morning Wonders.

M'CLELLAND, JOHNSON AND HOLLY WIN THREE FIGHTS.

Fighters were busy in three different rings last night. In St. Louis Jack McClelland, of Pittsburgh, received the decision over Abe Attell. In Chicago "Big Jack" Johnson got a six-round verdict over Frank Childs, and in Philadelphia Dan Holly outclassed Kid Williams.

McClelland vs. Attel.

ST. LOUIS, June 3.—In one of the most thrilling ring battles ever fought before the West End Club, Jack McClelland, Pittsburgh's aggressive fighter, was declared the winner over Abe Attell, the 125-pound champion, by Referee Sharp last night.

The decision was enthusiastically received, although some criticism was heard because a draw was not rendered. The weight was 125 at 3 o'clock, and Attell failed to raise the beam. McClelland refused to weigh in, claiming that the match was made at catch-weight.

Manager Mason announced after the fight that McClelland weighed not over 125 pounds.

Attell claimed a foul in the twelfth, insisting that a low blow struck him in the groin. Referee Sharp refused to allow the claim. The fight was the fastest and prettiest seen here this season. It was very scientific, and proved both contestants premier in their class.

There were two preliminary bouts before the main event, each to have been six rounds. The first was at 112 pounds, and was won by Kid Tennen from Kid Block, who was defeated in the first round.

The second preliminary was won by G. Pinner, the Boer soldier telegrapher, from George Kerr, the British bar, and was at catch-weight.

Johnson-Childs.

(Special to The Evening World.)
CHICAGO, Ill., June 3.—Last night, before the Empire A. C., Jack Johnson was given the decision over Frank Childs at the end of six rounds of the "sweetest fighting imaginable." "Kid" Johnson was at the ringside to challenge the winner of the bout and on his showing against Childs, Johnson cannot be conceded a chance with even a second-rate fighter like "Kid" Johnson.

This was Johnson's first appearance in a local ring since he was beaten at the system, and the crowd came to see him put out old man Childs and get a line on his chances against James Jeffries left the hall sadly disappointed and at the same time wondering why Jeff was overlooking the chance to make the easiest kind of money. It took Johnson nearly a year to convince local matchmakers that he has learned to fight and he was at last given a chance to show his power.

Johnson's showing was a disappointment to his many followers, who at least expected a draw, but the colored boy was too much for him and carried the stronger punch. Williams found this out early in the game, and was satisfied to last the limit.

Williams and Holly.

PHILADELPHIA, June 3.—Dave Holly added another scalp to his already long list last night by decisively defeating "Kid" Williams at the Broadway Athletic Club.

Williams, who scored several victories, and it was thought that he would prove a tough opponent for Dave, however, who held him safe at all stages of the contest; in fact, Dave was compelled to do all the fighting. In the fourth round Holly warmed up to his work and went after Williams. He succeeded in reaching the "Kid's" jaw with a terrific hook that dropped him for the count. In the sixth round Holly again compelled Williams to hit the canvas and had him in bad shape at the final bell; indeed it was a question as to whether the bell did not save Williams from a knockout.

Williams's showing was a disappointment to his many followers, who at least expected a draw, but the colored boy was too much for him and carried the stronger punch. Williams found this out early in the game, and was satisfied to last the limit.

HAD FUN ON TRIP.

"But I had some fun for my trip. Coming back with Tod Sloan was about the best of it. We played all the games on the ship, and Tod could play them all right, too. Then he started climbing the rigging. He found out that he could beat me at that, and he insisted on climbing all the time. He could get up like a monkey, until he got me out of breath."

"On Decoration Day we tried to get the band on the Deutschland to play the Star Spangled Banner. Nothing doing. We couldn't get them to play a single American tune. That made me feel as if I was over in Turkey instead of a few miles off shore here. But I was glad when I saw Hoboken. Tod said Hoboken wasn't America, and he didn't cheer up until he got across to New York."

Here Mr. Corbett's trunks arrived, and he stopped talking to burrow in half a ton of English clothes, trying to find a suit that could be worn on Broadway.

per and the winning of the Criterion Stakes by Schulamite yesterday served as examples of the uncertainty of racing even among the aristocratic horsemen. Madden bred Schulamite and nominated her for this stake. He sold her for $100,000 some time ago. He bought her back and Pepper for $2,000, and in this $20,000 stake the $100,000 horse was first and the $2,000 one was in the luck.

Col. John E. Madden has sold to W. C. Daly his two-year-old filly Sult and Pepper, by Henry of Navarre—Greenwich. The price was reported to have been $250,000. The sale of Salt and Pepper

and the winning of the Criterion Stakes by Schulamite yesterday served as examples of the uncertainty of racing even among the aristocratic horsemen. Madden bred Schulamite and nominated her for this stake. He sold her for $100,000 some time ago. He bought her back and Pepper for $2,000, and in this $20,000 stake the $100,000 horse was first and the $2,000 one was in the luck.

Col. John E. Madden has sold to W. C. Daly his two-year-old filly Sult and Pepper, by Henry of Navarre—Greenwich. The price was reported to have been $250,000. The sale of Salt and Pepper

and the winning of the Criterion Stakes by Schulamite yesterday served as examples of the uncertainty of racing even among the aristocratic horsemen. Madden bred Schulamite and nominated her for this stake. He sold her for $100,000 some time ago. He bought her back and Pepper for $2,000, and in this $20,000 stake the $100,000 horse was first and the $2,000 one was in the luck.

Col. John E. Madden has sold to W. C. Daly his two-year-old filly Sult and Pepper, by Henry of Navarre—Greenwich. The price was reported to have been $250,000. The sale of Salt and Pepper

and the winning of the Criterion Stakes by Schulamite yesterday served as examples of the uncertainty of racing even among the aristocratic horsemen. Madden bred Schulamite and nominated her for this stake. He sold her for $100,000 some time ago. He bought her back and Pepper for $2,000, and in this $20,000 stake the $100,000 horse was first and the $2,000 one was in the luck.

Col. John E. Madden has sold to W. C. Daly his two-year-old filly Sult and Pepper, by Henry of Navarre—Greenwich. The price was reported to have been $250,000. The sale of Salt and Pepper

and the winning of the Criterion Stakes by Schulamite yesterday served as examples of the uncertainty of racing even among the aristocratic horsemen. Madden bred Schulamite and nominated her for this stake. He sold her for $100,000 some time ago. He bought her back and Pepper for $2,000, and in this $20,000 stake the $100,000 horse was first and the $2,000 one was in the luck.

Col. John E. Madden has sold to W. C. Daly his two-year-old filly Sult and Pepper, by Henry of Navarre—Greenwich. The price was reported to have been $250,000. The sale of Salt and Pepper

and the winning of the Criterion Stakes by Schulamite yesterday served as examples of the uncertainty of racing even among the aristocratic horsemen. Madden bred Schulamite and nominated her for this stake. He sold her for $100,000 some time ago. He bought her back and Pepper for $2,000, and in this $20,000 stake the $100,000 horse was first and the $2,000 one was in the luck.

Col. John E. Madden has sold to W. C.